Subject: Rezoning of Lots at Corner of New Haven Avenue and Birchwood Avenue

Dear Mr. Jones:

Please be advised that the East Side Community Association is opposed to any rezoning to an M-1 zone within our boundaries without the submission of definite plans for the use of the entire area to be rezoned. We object because an M-1 zone permits the construction of a truck terminal.

Our streets, many of which are unimproved, are already overloaded with semi-trucks going to established terminals and industrial traffic from the East End industries.

This particular rezoning is directly across from an area now having a Neighborhood Shopping Symbol. It is also in the vicinity of McCormick Place Housing Development, a Federal Aid Project and in proximity to another tract of land proposed for a housing development.

We feel that any M-1 zoning near this area without definite plans would not be conducive to the best development of the area or in the best interest of the residents.

Your consideration and that of the City Plan Commission will be appreciated by the members of the East Side Community Association.

Respectively submitted,

EAST SIDE COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

Lillian Crance, Secretary
